

Title of Project	Lead Applicant Organisation	Partner organisations	Agreed Focus of Funded Project
Transforming self-care through adoption of the Dignity Bidet Commode	Devices for Dignity consortium (6 NHS Trusts and 3 Academic centres) hosted by Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS FT	NHS Sheffield, Assist UK, University of Sheffield School of Health and Related Research, Medipex	To develop and test out a model that can be used widely across the region to promote the adoption and spread of innovative products, devices and technologies
Electronic consultation in chronic kidney disease	NHS Bradford and Airedale	Bradford Hospitals NHS FT, Phoenix Partnership, Bradford Institute for Healthcare Research	To undertake a robust evaluation of the use of e-consultation as a service model and to produce products to support the spread of this service model into other communities
Review of TeleMedicine in prisons to determine its continued use in the Wakefield prisons and potential for a regional procurement	NHS Wakefield on behalf of the Y&H PCT Offender Health Commissioners Network	NHS Leeds, NHS East Riding, NHS Hull, NHS North Yorkshire and York, HM Prison Service, Primary Care Providers of Prison Health Services, Yorkshire and Humber Improvement Partnership, Commercial Procurement Collaborative	To develop an innovative model for the provision of telehealth services in the prison setting across Y&H
Telewound management	Bradford Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust	NHS Bradford and Airedale, Sheffield PCT Provider services, Medipex, Medilink, Longhand data limited, ADL smartcare ltd, O2	To develop an economic service model to underpin the telewound service and to produce products to support the spread of this model to other communities
Improving patient experience and expectations in choice for DNACPR across Yorkshire and the Humber	NHS Bradford and Airedale as lead commissioner for YAS	Y&H PCTs, Yorkshire Coast cancer network, Trent and Humber Cancer network, YAS, EOL care pathway group	To develop a Y&H wide approach to "Do not attempt resuscitation" in end of life care to increase the number of people dying in their place of choice. To include educational component
Embedding the 'Getting Sorted' self-care workshops for children and young people with type 1 diabetes in mainstream service provision within Yorkshire and the Humber	Leeds Metropolitan University	NHS Doncaster, NHS Calderdale, NHS Hull NHS North Yorkshire and York, NHS Diabetes, NHS Yorkshire and Humber, Children and Young People's network, acute trusts,	To build capacity and capability in health communities in supporting children and young people in better managing type 1 diabetes