

Does your website pass the Eight Second Rule?

Research shows that visitors to a typical website make a decision about whether to stay within 8 seconds. Does your website pass the 8 second rule or are your potential customers clicking off to your competitors website as you read this?

Quba is the preferred web partner of Medilink. We build websites that engage your customers and get results. With three fixed price website packages you can be sure to get a website that's right for your business.
