All exhibitors are subject to a 190 Euro Media Fee which serves the publishing of exhibitor data in the electronic media, website and possibly other media. This is a compulsory charge from the organisers Messe Düsseldorf and is not included with the above, but will be included on your invoice from Medilink. Exhibition stands must be manned at all times. Messe Düsseldorf can issue penalties for stands that have been prematurely abandoned, of up to 1,500 Euro per stand/exhibitor. This penalty would initially be issued to Medilink as the group organiser but passed onto the respective exhibitor to pay in full. Exhibitors will be able to order their own additional items if required (that are not provided for by Medilink or our stand builders) on the event's online order system (OOS) to a limited extent. The invoice for items ordered will also be issued to Medilink but passed onto the respective exhibitor to pay in full.
